

A spiral-bound notebook with a light beige, textured cover. The metal spiral binding is visible on the left side. The text is centered on the page.

How to build an Internet Service

Track 4 Wrap Up

- These slides are intended to attempt to bring together the material presented in Track 4, to gain an overall perspective of the tasks required, and the considerations that must be included when undertaking large scale national Internet infrastructure projects.
- Many of the slides are blank - you should complete them using your knowledge gained from the course

How do Internets develop?

- the phases of development

What Material is there to help me

- The experience in other countries
- The expectations of the potential clients

What Services have to be considered

- Client types
- Access models
- Service portfolio

Environmental Considerations

- Competitive Position
- Funders' expectations
- Clients expectations
- Available technology
- Available expertise

Administrative Infrastructure

- national domain names
- name allocation policies
- name administration

The Business Plan

- purpose definition
- objectives
- funding / retail model
- architecture
- design

The Business Plan

- expenditure forecasts
- operational support
- marketing program
- developmental milestones
- checkpoints and measureable criteria

Operational Considerations

- Security Architectures
- Network Operations Management

Growth

- Plan for rapid growth
- Be ready to grow in line with your customer base

